

Case Study: Retargeting

D2C bedroom furniture brand increases direct response visits to their website.

1. Objective

This bedroom furniture brand wanted to drive more direct response visits to their website than what they were able to achieve with TV advertising alone.

2. Solution

This brand used our product with their TV retargeting to repurpose their already-proven and readily-available social creative for display, align their strong brand messaging and creative across both TV and digital, and reach people in households that had been exposed to their TV ad with a direct response ad that would drive them to site.

3. Results

The brand saw 18x more site visits than TV-only strategy and 2x more site visits than TV + standard display.
